corrective services dog means a dog that is being used on official duty by a correctional officer (within the meaning of the Crimes \(Administration of Sentences\) Act 1999).

- (2) (Repealed)
- (3) Notes in the text of this Act do not form part of this Act.

6 Meaning of “local authority”

- (1) The local authority for a place is the council in the area of which the place is located.
- (1A) The Minister may appoint a person to be the local authority for the purposes of this Act for land within the Western Division that is not within the area of a council under the Local Government Act 1993.
- (1B) The Minister may revoke an appointment under subsection (1A) at any time or for any reason.
- (1C) A person appointed under subsection (1A) (except a person who is an employee of a government sector agency within the meaning of the Government Sector Employment Act 2013) is entitled to be paid the remuneration (including travelling and subsistence allowances) that the Minister may from time to time determine in respect of the person.
- (2) The regulations may provide that the functions of the local authority for a place are to be exercised for the purposes of this Act or specified provisions of this Act by a specified person or the holder of a specified office (instead of by the council provided for by subsection (1)). That person or the holder of that office is then the local authority for that place for the purposes of this Act or the relevant provisions of this Act.

6A General duties of councils

- (1) A council is required—
 - (a) to promote awareness within its area of the requirements of this Act with respect to the ownership of companion animals, and
 - (b) to take such steps as are appropriate to ensure that it is notified or otherwise made aware of the existence of all dangerous, menacing and restricted dogs (including dogs that might reasonably be considered to be the subject of a declaration under Division 1 or 6 of Part 5) that are ordinarily kept within its area.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the other functions that may be conferred or imposed on a council by or under this Act.

Note. Councils also have functions in relation to companion animals under other legislation. For example, the number of dogs or cats that are able to be kept on premises can be restricted by a council by giving an order to the occupier in terms of order No 18 in the Table to section 124 of the Local Government Act 1993.

6B Duty to provide certain information to councils

- (1) If an official person has any information about—
 - (a) a dog that the person reasonably believes is a threat to the public, or
 - (b) an incident involving a dog attacking or biting, without provocation, a person or animal,it is the duty of the official person to provide that information to the relevant council (or councils) as soon as it is reasonably practicable.

Note. The relevant council would usually be the council of the area in which the dog is ordinarily kept. However, the relevant council may also be the council of the area in which the incident concerned took place.

- (2) An official person does not incur any criminal or civil liability (including liability for breaching any duty of confidentiality) for providing any such information to a council if the information is provided in good faith.
- (3) In this section, official person means—
 - (a) a police officer, or
 - (b) an officer of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, New South Wales, or of the Animal Welfare League NSW, as referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of officer in section 4 (1) of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979.

7 Meaning of “owner”

- (1) Each of the following persons is the owner of a companion animal for the purposes of this Act—
 - (a) the owner of the animal (in the sense of being the owner of the animal as personal property),
 - (b) the person by whom the animal is ordinarily kept,
 - (c) the registered owner of the animal.
- (2) A reference in this Act to the owner of a companion animal is a reference to each and all owners of the animal.

Note. A provision of this Act that makes the owner of a companion animal guilty of an offence makes each owner guilty of the offence.
- (3), (4) (Repealed)
- (5) When a companion animal is ordinarily kept by an employee on behalf of his or her employer, the animal is for the purposes of this Act taken to be ordinarily kept by the employer and not the employee. This subsection does not prevent an employee being the registered owner of an animal and does not prevent the employee being an owner if the employee is the registered owner.
- (6) In any prosecution of the owner of a companion animal for an offence against this Act it is a defence if the defendant establishes that—
 - (a) another owner of the animal has been convicted of an offence arising out of the same circumstances, or the commission by another owner of the animal of an offence arising out of the same circumstances has been proved but a court has made an order under section 10 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in respect of the offence, or
 - (b) another owner of the animal has paid the amount of the penalty prescribed under section 92 (Penalty notices) for an alleged offence arising out of the same circumstances.

Part 2 Compulsory identification and registration of companion animals

8 Identification required from 12 weeks of age and before sale

- (1) A companion animal must be identified as required by the regulations from the time the animal is 12 weeks old.

- (2) A companion animal must not be sold unless it has been identified as required by the regulations (even if it is less than 12 weeks old when it is sold).
- (3) The owner of an animal is guilty of an offence if it is not identified in accordance with subsection (1).

Maximum penalty—

- (a) 8 penalty units except in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog, or
 - (b) 50 penalty units in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.
- (4) A person who sells an animal in contravention of subsection (2) is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) 8 penalty units except in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog, or
 - (b) 50 penalty units in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.
- (5) The regulations may change the age from which a companion animal is required to be identified under subsection (1) from 12 weeks to any other age (either generally for all companion animals or for a particular kind or class of companion animal).

Note. The term “sell” extends to the transfer of ownership by any means, including by gift. This section requires an animal to be identified before it is sold no matter what the age of the animal when it is sold.

9 Registration required from age 6 months

- (1) A companion animal must be registered under this Act from the time the animal is 6 months old. The owner of the animal is guilty of an offence if it is not registered.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog—60 penalty units for a first offence or 70 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence, or
- (b) in any other case—50 penalty units for a first offence or 60 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence.

Note. The regulations may provide for exceptions to this section. An owner does not have to wait until an animal is 6 months old to register it. An animal of any age can be registered.

- (2) The regulations may change the age from which a companion animal is required to be registered under this section from 6 months to any other age, either generally for all companion animals or for a particular kind or class of companion animal.
- (3) A person is taken to commit a separate offence under this section on every day the companion animal remains unregistered. However, a person—
 - (a) may not be convicted for the commission of more than one offence in relation to the failure to register a companion animal during any single calendar month, and
 - (b) may be convicted only once in relation to any failure to register a companion animal that occurred before that failure came to the notice of the council of the area in which the animal is ordinarily kept.

Note. This subsection does not limit the number of times a person may be prosecuted under section 10B (Notice requiring companion animal to be registered).

- (4) A greyhound that is registered for the time being under the Greyhound Racing Act 2017 is exempt from this section.

10 Regulations may require registration

The regulations may require a particular class or description of companion animals (not otherwise required to be registered) to be registered. The owner of such an animal is guilty of an offence if it is not registered.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog—60 penalty units for a first offence or 70 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence, or
- (b) in any other case—50 penalty units for a first offence or 60 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence.

Note. For example, the regulations could require that a companion animal be registered if it has been seized under this Act (for example, because it was found at large outside the property of its owner). The animal would then have to be registered even though it might be less than 6 months old.

10A (Repealed)

10B Notice requiring companion animal to be registered

- (1) If a companion animal that is required to be registered is not registered, the council of the area in which the animal is ordinarily kept may give the owner of the animal a notice, in the approved form, requiring the owner to register the animal within 14 days after the date the notice is given.
- (2) The owner of the companion animal must comply with the notice.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog—60 penalty units for a first offence or 70 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence, or
- (b) in any other case—50 penalty units for a first offence or 60 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence.
- (3) A notice under this section may be given on more than one occasion to the owner of an unregistered companion animal that is required to be registered (but only after an interval of at least 3 months since the last such notice was given).

11 Owner required to notify certain changes and events

- (1) The owner of an identified companion animal (whether or not it is registered) must notify the Departmental Chief Executive when any of the following happens—
 - (a) any change occurs in the registration information or identification information for the animal

(notification must be given within 14 days after the change occurs),

- (b) the making or revocation of a declaration by a court under Part 5 that the animal (being a dog) is a dangerous dog or a menacing dog (notification must be given within 7 days after the declaration is made or revoked),
- (c) the animal dies (notification must be given within 28 days after the animal dies),
- (d) the animal has been missing for more than 72 hours (notification must be given within 96 hours after the animal went missing),
- (d1) the animal has been found after having been reported missing (notification must be given within 72 hours after the animal is found),
- (e) any other event prescribed as a notifiable event by the regulations.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) 8 penalty units except in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog, or
 - (b) 50 penalty units in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.
- (2) The regulations may provide for the manner in which a notification under this section is to be given to the Departmental Chief Executive. Notification is not considered to have been given unless it is given in compliance with any such applicable provisions of the regulations.
 - (3) When the Departmental Chief Executive is notified of a change in registration information, the Departmental Chief Executive is to provide the registered owner of the animal with a certificate of registration free of charge showing the registration information as changed. If the change is a change of ownership, the certificate of registration is to be provided to the new owner.
 - (4) A person who in any notification given for the purposes of this section makes a statement or gives information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—8 penalty units.

11A Duties of councils in relation to companion animals killed by traffic

A council is required—

- (a) to take such steps as are reasonable to ascertain the ownership of any companion animal found in its area that appears to have been killed as the result of being hit by a vehicle, and
- (b) if the animal that has been killed was an identified companion animal—to notify the Departmental Chief Executive and the owner of the animal (if the owner can be identified) that the animal has been killed.

Maximum penalty—

 - (b) 50 penalty units in the case of a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.
- (1A) The regulations may, for the purposes of this section, specify what constitutes or does not constitute reasonable precautions to prevent a dog from escaping.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), owner of a dog includes the person who is for the time being in charge of the dog.

13 Responsibilities while dog in public place

- (1) A dog that is in a public place must be under the effective control of some competent person by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash that is attached to the dog and that is being held by (or secured to) the person.

A reference in this subsection to the owner of the dog includes a reference to the person who is for the time being in charge of the dog.

Note. Putting the dog on a leash prevents the dog being seized but it does not excuse the contravention and does not stop action being taken for the contravention.

- (4) A dog is not considered to be under the effective control of a person if the person has more than 4 dogs under his or her control.
- (5) This section does not apply to—
- (a) a dog accompanied by some competent person in an area declared to be an off-leash area by a declaration under this section (but only if the total number of dogs that the person is accompanied by or has control of does not exceed 4), or

Note. Just because a dog is not on a lead in an off-leash area, or is secured in a cage or vehicle or is tethered to a fixed object or structure, does not mean that an offence under section 16 is not committed if the dog rushes at, attacks, bites, harasses or chases any person or animal, whether or not any injury is caused.

- (6) A local authority can by order declare a public place to be an off-leash area. Such a declaration can be limited so as to apply during a particular period or periods of the day or to different periods of different days. However, there must at all times be at least one public place in the area of a local authority that is an off-leash area.

(3) Any person (including an authorised officer) can seize a dog that is in a place in which dogs are prohibited under this section. If the owner of the dog is present, the dog cannot be seized except by an authorised officer and only then if the owner fails to remove the dog from the place when the officer directs the owner to do so. A reference in this subsection to the owner of the dog includes a reference to the person who is for the time being in charge of the dog.

Note. Removing the dog prevents the dog being impounded but it does not excuse the contravention and does not stop action being taken for the contravention.

- (1) The owner of a dog is liable in damages in respect of—
 - (a) bodily injury to a person caused by the dog wounding or attacking that person, and

- (b) damage to the personal property of a person (including clothing) caused by the dog in the course of attacking that person.
- (2) This section does not apply in respect of—
 - (a) an attack by a dog occurring on any property or vehicle of which the owner of the dog is an occupier or on which the dog is ordinarily kept, but only if the person attacked was not lawfully on the property or vehicle and the dog was not a dangerous dog, menacing dog or restricted dog at the time of the attack, or
 - (b) an attack by a dog that is in immediate response to, and is wholly induced by, intentional provocation of the dog by a person other than the owner of the dog or the owner's employees or agents.
- (3) This section does not apply in respect of a police dog or a corrective services dog.
- (4) This section does not affect the liability apart from this section of any person for damage caused by a dog.

26 Continuation of liability when person dies from dog attack

Where the death of a person is caused by a dog wounding or attacking the person and the person would (had death not ensued) have been entitled under section 25 to recover damages from the owner of the dog in respect of bodily injury caused by the wounding or attack, the wounding or attack is, for the purposes of the Compensation to Relatives Act 1897, taken to be a wrongful act such as would (had death not ensued) have entitled the injured person to maintain an action against, and recover damages from, the owner of the dog in respect of that act.

27 Liability for injury to animal

- (1) The owner of a dog is liable in damages in respect of injury (whether or not fatal) to another animal (whether or not a dog, but other than vermin) caused by the dog attacking or chasing it.
- (2) This section does not apply in respect of—
 - (a) a dog attacking or chasing another animal on any property or vehicle of which the owner of the dog is an occupier or on which the dog is ordinarily kept, but only if the dog is not a dangerous dog or menacing dog under this Act at the time of the incident, or
 - (b) a dog attacking or chasing another animal in the course of droving, tending, working or protecting stock, or
 - (c) a dog attacking or chasing another animal where the attacking or chasing is in immediate response to, and is wholly induced by, intentional provocation of the dog by a person other than the owner of the dog or the owner's employees or agents, or
 - (d) a dog attacking or causing injury to another animal, where its doing so is in immediate response to, and is wholly induced by, an attack on the dog made by the other animal.
- (3) This section does not affect the liability apart from this section of any person for damage caused by a dog.

28 Contributory negligence

- (1) When damage suffered by a person that gives rise to a liability on the part of the owner of a dog to pay damages under this Division is the result partly of contributory negligence on the part of the person who suffers the damage, the damage is, for the purposes of Part 3 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1965, taken to have been suffered as the result partly of a wrong by the owner of the dog and partly of the contributory negligence of the person who suffered the damage.
- (2) This section does not affect the operation of Part 3 of the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1965 in respect of any liability for damage caused by a dog that arises otherwise than under this Division.

Part 4 Responsibilities for control of cats

29 Cats must have form of identification

- (1) A cat must be identified by a form of identification that enables a local authority to ascertain the name of the cat and the address or telephone number of the owner of the cat.
- (2) The identification may take any of the following forms—
 - (a) a collar worn around the cat's neck with a tag or tags attached,
 - (b) a microchip,
 - (c) any other form of identification prescribed by the regulations.
- (3) The owner of the cat is guilty of an offence if this section is not complied with.
Maximum penalty—8 penalty units.
- (4) This section does not affect the operation of section 8.
- (5) This section does not apply to—
 - (a) a cat on property of which the owner of the cat is the occupier, or
 - (b) a cat being exhibited for show purposes or proceeding immediately to or from a place at which it will be, or has been, exhibited for show purposes.

30 Cats prohibited in some public places

- (1) Cats are prohibited in the following places—
 - (a) Food preparation/consumption areas (meaning any public place, or part of a public place, that is within 10 metres of any apparatus provided in that public place or part for the preparation of food for human consumption or for the consumption of food by humans).
 - (b) Wildlife protection areas (meaning any public place or any part of a public place set apart by the local authority for the protection of wildlife and in which the local authority ordered that cats are prohibited for the purposes of the protection of wildlife and in which, or near the boundaries of which, there are conspicuously exhibited by the local authority at reasonable intervals notices to the effect that cats are prohibited in or on that public place).

- (2) If a cat is in a place in which cats are prohibited under this section—
- (a) the owner of the cat, or
 - (b) if the owner is not present at the time of the offence and another person who is of or above the age of 16 years is in charge of the cat at that time—that other person,
- is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—8 penalty units.

- (3) Any person (including an authorised officer) may seize a cat that is in a place in which cats are prohibited under this section for the cat's own protection.
- (4) If the owner of the cat is present, an authorised officer (but no other person) may seize the cat (whether or not for the cat's own protection), but only if the owner fails to remove the cat from the place when the officer directs the owner to do so. A reference in this subsection to the owner of the cat includes a reference to the person who is for the time being in charge of the cat.
- Note. Removing the cat prevents the cat being impounded but it does not excuse the contravention and does not stop action being taken for the contravention.
- (5) A cat is not prohibited under this section in a place that is a food preparation/consumption area if the place is a public thoroughfare (such as a road, footpath or pathway).
- (6) A local authority is authorised to make the orders contemplated by this section.

31 Nuisance cats

- (1) For the purposes of this section, a cat is a nuisance if the cat—
- (a) makes a noise that persistently occurs or continues to such a degree or extent that it unreasonably interferes with the peace, comfort or convenience of any person in any other premises, or
 - (b) repeatedly damages anything outside the property on which it is ordinarily kept.
- (2) If an authorised officer of a council is satisfied that a cat is a nuisance, the officer may, after complying with section 31A, issue an order in the approved form to the owner of the cat requiring the owner to prevent the behaviour that is alleged to constitute the nuisance.
- (3) The order must specify the behaviour of the cat that is required to be prevented. The order can specify more than one kind of behaviour.
- (4) An order remains in force for 6 months after it is issued.
- (5) The owner of a cat must comply with an order issued to the owner under this section and must continue to comply with it while it is in force.
- Maximum penalty—3 penalty units for a first offence or 8 penalty units for a second or subsequent offence.
- (6) A council whose authorised officer issues an order under this section must notify the Departmental Chief Executive within 7 days after the order is issued.

- (7) An order under this section is final and is not subject to any appeal or review.

31A Procedure for issuing nuisance cat order

- (1) Before an authorised officer of a council issues an order under section 31, the officer must give notice to the owner of the cat to which the proposed order relates of the officer's intention to issue the order.
- (2) The notice must set out—
 - (a) the requirements with which the owner will be required to comply if the order is issued, and
 - (b) the owner's right to object to the proposed order in writing to the authorised officer within 7 days after the date the notice is given.
- (3) The owner has 7 days after the date the notice is given in which to object to the proposed order.
- (4) If the owner does not object within that time, the authorised officer may proceed to issue the order after the 7 days have passed.
- (5) If the owner does object within that time, the authorised officer must consider the objection before deciding whether or not to issue the order.

32 Action to protect persons and animals against cats

- (1) Any person may lawfully seize a cat if that action is reasonable and necessary for the protection of any person or animal (other than vermin) from injury or death.
- (2) (Repealed)
- (3) If a cat that is not under the effective control of some competent person enters any inclosed lands within the meaning of the Inclosed Lands Protection Act 1901 and approaches any animal being farmed on the land, the occupier of the land or any person authorised by the occupier can lawfully injure or destroy the cat if he or she reasonably believes that the cat will molest, attack or cause injury to any of those animals.
- (4) An authorised officer who finds a cat attacking or harassing an animal (other than vermin) within a wildlife protection area (as defined in section 30 (1) (b)) can lawfully injure or destroy the cat if there is no other reasonably practicable way of protecting the animal.
- (5) A person who takes action under the authority of this section that results in the injury to or death of a cat must—
 - (a) take reasonable steps to ensure that an injured cat receives any necessary treatment, and
 - (b) report the matter to an authorised officer (unless the person is an authorised officer) and comply with such reasonable directions as the authorised officer may give for the purpose of causing the cat to be returned to its owner or taken to a council pound, and
 - (c) take reasonable steps to inform the owner of the cat.
- (6) An authorised officer is not to give a direction under this section for the purpose of causing a cat to be taken to a council pound unless the authorised officer is satisfied that the owner of the cat cannot be identified.

- (7) Nothing in this section authorises a contravention of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979.
- (8) The authority conferred by this section to destroy a cat extends only to authorising the destruction of the cat in a manner that causes it to die quickly and without unnecessary suffering.

- (3) The order must specify the behaviour of the dog that is required to be prevented. The order can specify more than one kind of behaviour.
- (4) An order remains in force for 6 months after it is issued.
- (5) The owner of a dog must comply with an order issued to the owner under this section and must continue to comply with it while it is in force.

Division 1 Declarations relating to dangerous and menacing dogs

33 Meaning of “dangerous”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a dog is dangerous if it—
 - (a) has, without provocation, attacked or killed a person or animal (other than vermin), or
 - (b) has, without provocation, repeatedly threatened to attack or repeatedly chased a person or animal (other than vermin), or
 - (c) (Repealed)
 - (d) is kept or used for the purposes of hunting.
- (2) A dog is not, for the purposes of subsection (1) (d), to be regarded as being kept or used for the purposes of hunting if it is used only to locate, flush, point or retrieve birds or vermin. Vermin for the purposes of this subsection includes small pest animals only (such as rodents).

Note. If a hunting dog is declared to be a dangerous dog, the declaration does not necessarily mean that the dog cannot be used for the purposes of lawful hunting—see section 51 (3).

33A Meaning of “menacing” and “menacing breed or kind of dog”

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, a dog is menacing if it—
 - (a) has displayed unreasonable aggression towards a person or animal (other than vermin), or
 - (b) has, without provocation, attacked a person or animal (other than vermin) but without causing serious injury or death.
- (2) The regulations may declare a breed or kind of dog to be a menacing breed or kind of dog.
- (3) The Minister is not to recommend the making of a regulation under subsection (2) unless the Minister is satisfied that the breed or kind of dog concerned displays characteristics associated with menacing behaviour. A failure to comply with this subsection does not invalidate the regulation concerned.

- (4) For the purposes of this section, a serious injury includes any of the following—
- (a) any injury that requires hospitalisation of a person or animal,
 - (b) a broken bone that requires medical or veterinary attention,
 - (c) a major laceration (that is, a wound caused by the tearing of body tissue or by multiple punctures caused by more than one bite from a dog) that requires medical or veterinary attention,
 - (d) a partial or total loss of sensation or function in a part of the body that requires medical or veterinary attention,

- (1A) An authorised officer of a council may declare a dog to be a menacing dog if the authorised officer is satisfied that—

 - (c) the dog has been declared a menacing dog under a law of another State or a Territory that corresponds with this Act.
- (1B) A declaration may be made under this section even if the dog is ordinarily kept in another council's area.
- (1C) The regulations may prescribe procedures that must be followed or matters that must be considered (or both) before an authorised officer makes a declaration under subsection (1A) (b).
- (2) A declaration can be made on the officer's own initiative or on the written application of a police officer or any other person.
- (3) A declaration has effect throughout the State. It is not limited in its operation to the area of the council whose authorised officer made the declaration.

Note. This Part also gives the Local Court the power to declare a dog to be dangerous in certain circumstances.

35 Owner to be notified of proposed declaration

- (1) An authorised officer of a council must give notice to the owner of a dog of the officer's intention to declare the dog to be a dangerous dog or a menacing dog.
- (2) The notice must set out—
 - (a) the requirements with which the owner will be required to comply if the declaration is made, and
 - (b) the owner's right to object to the proposed declaration in writing to the authorised officer within 7 days after the date the notice is given.

36 Obligations of owner when notified of proposed declaration

- (1) If a notice is given under section 35 to the owner of a dog of an authorised officer's intention to declare the dog to be a dangerous dog or a menacing dog, the owner must—
 - (a) ensure that at all times when the dog is away from the property where it is ordinarily kept—
 - (i) it is under the effective control of some competent person by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash that is attached to the dog and is held by (or secured to) the person, and
 - (ii) it has a muzzle securely fixed on its mouth in such a manner as will prevent it from biting any person or animal, and
 - (b) register the dog (if it is not already registered), regardless of its age, within 7 days after receiving the notice.

Note. Registration of a dog requires the dog to be microchipped.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) (a) only applies in respect of a dog—
 - (a) for 28 days after the notice is given to the dog's owner, or
 - (b) until the authorised officer notifies the owner that the officer has made the proposed declaration or has decided not to make it,whichever happens first.
- (3) An authorised officer may seize a dog that is the subject of a proposed declaration if—
 - (a) the officer is satisfied that—
 - (i) the requirements of subsection (1) (a) have not been complied with in relation to the dog, or
 - (ii) the dog is not confined, tethered or restrained in such a way as to prevent the dog attacking or chasing a person lawfully at the property where the dog is ordinarily kept, or

- (b) the dog is not registered (regardless as to whether the 7 day period referred to in subsection (1) (b) has expired).
- (3A) An authorised officer may seize a dog under subsection (3) (a) only during the period when subsection (1) (a) applies in respect of the dog.
- (4) If a dog is seized under subsection (3), Part 7 applies in respect of the dog, except that a claim for the dog cannot be made under section 64 unless an authorised officer is satisfied that—
 - (a) the requirements of subsection (1) (a) are capable of being complied with in relation to the dog, and
 - (a1) the dog is reasonably capable of being confined, tethered or restrained in such a way as to prevent the dog attacking or chasing a person lawfully at the property where the dog is ordinarily kept, and
 - (b) the dog has been registered.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (1) (a) (i), a dog is not considered to be under the effective control of a person if the person has more than 2 dogs (one of which is the dog the subject of the proposed declaration) under his or her control at the one time.

37 Authorised officer must consider dog owner's objections

- (1) The owner has 7 days after the date the notice is given in which to object to the proposed declaration.
- (2) If the owner does not object within that time, the authorised officer can proceed to make the declaration after the 7 days have passed.
- (3) If the owner does object within that time, the authorised officer must first consider the objection before proceeding to make the declaration.
- (4) A reference in this section to the authorised officer is a reference to any authorised officer of the council and is not limited to the authorised officer who gave the notice.

38 Authorised officer to notify dog owner of decision and consequences

- (1) An authorised officer of a council must give notice to the owner of a dog of the following—
 - (a) a declaration under this Division,
 - (b) a decision not to make a declaration under this Division.

The notice must be given within 7 days after the declaration or decision is made.
- (2) A notice that a dog has been declared a dangerous dog or a menacing dog must set out—
 - (a) the requirements imposed on the owner by this Part and the date or dates by which the owner must comply with those requirements, and
 - (b) in the case of a dangerous dog declaration—the owner's right under section 41 to appeal to the Local Court against the declaration, and

- (c) the fact that the dog may, under section 58G, be seized and destroyed if the dog attacks or bites a person or animal without provocation or if the requirements imposed on the owner under section 51 (1) (c), (c1) or (e) are not complied with on 2 separate occasions over any period of 12 months (whether or not each occasion relates to the same requirement).
- (3) A declaration has effect from the date specified in the notice or the date on which notice is given, whichever is the later.

39 Council can revoke declaration

- (1) The owner of a dog that has been declared a dangerous dog or a menacing dog under this Division can apply to the council of the area in which the dog is ordinarily kept (whether or not it is the council whose authorised officer made the declaration) for the declaration to be revoked.
- (1A) An application under subsection (1) cannot be made until after the period of 12 months following the date on which the dog was declared to be a dangerous dog or a menacing dog.
- (2) The council to which the application is made may revoke the declaration but only if satisfied that—
 - (a) it is appropriate to do so, and
 - (b) if the council determines that it is necessary—the dog has undergone appropriate behavioural training.
- (2A) In making a determination under subsection (2) (a) in relation to a menacing dog declaration, the council is to have regard to the nature and extent of any behavioural training that the dog has undergone.
- (3) The council must, as soon as practicable, give notice to the owner of the dog that the declaration has been revoked or that the council has refused to revoke the declaration.

40 Departmental Chief Executive to be notified of making or revocation of declaration

- (1) An authorised officer of a council who makes a declaration under this Division must give notice of the declaration to the Departmental Chief Executive within 7 days.
- (2) A council that revokes a declaration under this Division must give notice of the revocation to the Departmental Chief Executive within 7 days.

41 Appeal to Local Court regarding dangerous dog declarations

- (1) The owner of a dog can appeal to the Local Court—
 - (a) against the declaration by an authorised officer of a council that the dog is a dangerous dog, or
 - (b) against a refusal by a council to revoke a declaration that the dog is a dangerous dog.

Note. No appeal lies to the Local Court against a declaration by an authorised officer of a council that a dog is a menacing dog or against a refusal by a council to revoke a declaration that the dog is a menacing dog.

- (2) An appeal can only be made within 28 days after the date the owner of the dog—

- (a) is given notice by the authorised officer under section 38 that the officer has made the declaration, or
- (b) is given notice by the council under section 39 that it has refused to revoke the declaration.
- (3) The fact that an appeal is pending does not affect the dog's status as a dangerous dog and does not affect the appellant's obligations under this Act as the owner of a dangerous dog, unless the Court otherwise orders.

42 Determination of appeals by Local Court

The Local Court may determine an appeal by confirming the decision of the authorised officer or the council (as the case requires) or by revoking the declaration.

Note. The Local Court has power under Division 3 to make other orders to control a dog on an appeal from a decision of a council concerning a declaration (for example, the Court can order that the owner of a dog take such action as the Court thinks necessary to prevent the dog attacking persons or other animals).

43 (Repealed)

Division 2 Power of Local Court to declare dogs dangerous or menacing

44 Local Court has power to declare dog to be dangerous or menacing dog

- (1) In any proceedings under this Act before the Local Court (other than an appeal against a declaration by an authorised officer of a council that a dog is a dangerous dog or against a refusal by a council to revoke such a declaration), the Court may declare a dog to be a dangerous dog or a menacing dog.
- (2) A declaration by the Local Court has effect throughout the State.

Note. Section 11 requires the owner of a dog to notify the Departmental Chief Executive when a dangerous dog or menacing dog declaration is made or revoked by the Local Court.

45 When Local Court can declare dog to be dangerous or menacing dog

- (1) The Local Court may declare a dog to be a dangerous dog if the Court is satisfied that—
 - (a) the dog is dangerous, or

Note. Section 33 sets out the meaning of “dangerous” in relation to a dog for the purposes of this Act.

 - (b) the dog has been declared a dangerous dog under a law of another State or a Territory that corresponds with this Act.
- (1A) The Local Court may declare a dog to be a menacing dog if the Court is satisfied that—
 - (a) the dog is menacing because of any observed behaviour of the dog, or
 - (b) the dog is of a menacing breed or kind of dog (or a cross-breed of a menacing breed or kind of dog), or
 - (c) the dog has been declared a menacing dog under a law of another State or a Territory that corresponds with this Act.
- (2) (Repealed)

46 Revocation of Local Court declaration

The Local Court can revoke a declaration made by a Court under this Division on the application of the owner of the dog concerned if the Court is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances.

Division 3 Powers of Courts to make destruction and control orders

47 Control orders

- (1) A control order is an order of a Court that the owner of a dog take such action (other than destroying the dog) within the period specified in the order as the Court thinks necessary to prevent, or reduce the likelihood of, the dog attacking or causing injury to persons or animals.
- (2) A control order can be made by a Court in the following circumstances—
 - (a) in proceedings for an offence under section 16, 17, 49, 51 or 56 of this Act, or under section 35A of the Crimes Act 1900,
 - (b) on an appeal under this Act against the declaration by an authorised officer of a council that a dog is dangerous or against a council's refusal to revoke such a declaration,
 - (c) on the Court declaring the dog to be a dangerous dog or a menacing dog under Division 2.
- (3) The action that a control order can require the owner of a dog to take includes (without limiting any of the requirements that apply in relation to the dog under section 51 or 56) the following action—
 - (a) the desexing of the dog,
 - (b) the behavioural or socialisation training of the dog,
 - (c) training that is associated with responsible pet ownership.
- (4) A control order can be made in addition to any other order made by the Court in the proceedings concerned.

48 Destruction orders

- (1) A destruction order is an order of a Court that the owner of a dog destroy the dog or cause the dog to be destroyed, or that a dog be destroyed by some person authorised by the Court, within the period specified in the order.
- (2) A destruction order can be made by a Court in the following circumstances—
 - (a) on conviction of the owner of the dog of an offence under section 35A of the Crimes Act 1900, or under section 16, 17, 49, 51 or 56 of this Act,
 - (b) on confirming the declaration by an authorised officer of a council that a dog is dangerous or a council's refusal to revoke such a declaration.
- (3) However, a Court must not make a destruction order unless it is satisfied that the making of a control order, or an order permanently removing the dog from its owner (which the Court is, by this subsection, authorised to make), will not be sufficient to protect the public from any threat posed by the dog.

- (3A) A Court must, except in exceptional circumstances, make a destruction order on conviction of the owner of the dog of an offence involving the serious injury or death of a person caused by the dog.
- (4) If the Court makes an order permanently removing a dog from its owner, the dog is to be dealt with under Part 7 as if it were a seized animal. However, the dog is not to be sold to the owner from whom it was removed by the order.
- (5) The making of an order by a Court under section 10 of the Crimes (Sentencing Procedure) Act 1999 in respect of a person charged with an offence is to be treated for the purposes of this section as a conviction of the person for the offence.
- (6) A destruction order can be made in addition to any other order made by the Court in the proceedings concerned.
- (7) A destruction order is sufficient authority for the destruction of a dog. The dog must be destroyed in a manner that causes it to die quickly and without unnecessary suffering.

49 Failure to comply with destruction or control order

The owner of a dog who does not comply with a destruction or control order under this Division is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

50 Ancillary orders to enable destruction order to be carried out

- (1) A Court may, if it makes a destruction order that a dog be destroyed by some person authorised by the Court, require the owner of the dog to take, within such period as is specified in the destruction order, such action as is, in the opinion of the Court, necessary to enable the destruction order to be carried out.
- (2) The Court may also make an order for the payment of any costs incurred in destroying the dog.
- (3) The owner of a dog who does not comply with an order under this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

Division 4 Responsibilities of owners of dangerous or menacing dogs

51 Owner of dangerous or menacing dog must comply with control requirements

- (1) The owner of a dog that is declared to be a dangerous dog under this Act must ensure that each of the following requirements is complied with while the declaration is in force—
 - (a) The dog must be desexed (if it is not already desexed) within 28 days after it is declared a dangerous dog. If the owner appeals against the declaration, the operation of this paragraph is stayed until the appeal is either withdrawn or determined.
 - (b) The dog must not at any time be in the sole charge of a person under the age of 18 years.
 - (c) Enclosure requirements

While the dog is on property on which the dog is ordinarily kept, the dog must be kept in an enclosure that complies with the requirements prescribed by the regulations. The owner has 3 months from the date on which the dog is declared dangerous to comply. In the case of an existing dangerous dog, the owner has 6 months from the relevant date to comply.

Note. A certificate of compliance in relation to the prescribed enclosure must be obtained by the owner of the dog—see section 58H.

(c1) Until such time as the requirement under paragraph (c) is complied with, the dog must, while on property on which it is ordinarily kept, be kept in an enclosure that is sufficient to restrain the dog and prevent a child from having access to the dog.

(d) One or more signs must be displayed on that property showing the words “Warning Dangerous Dog” in letters clearly visible from the boundaries of the property on which the dog is ordinarily kept or, if the regulations provide for the signs required by this paragraph, complying with the regulations.

(d1) Distinctive collar must be worn

The dog must at all times wear a collar of the kind prescribed by the regulations.

(e) Dog must be kept on lead and be muzzled

Whenever the dog is outside its enclosure, the dog—

(i) must be under the effective control of some competent person by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash that is attached to the dog and that is being held by (or secured to) the person, and

(ii) must be muzzled in a manner that is sufficient to prevent it from biting any person or animal.

For the purposes of this paragraph, a dog is not considered to be under the effective control of a person if the person has more than 2 dogs (one of which is the dangerous dog) under his or her control at the one time.

(f)–(h) (Repealed)

(i) The owner must notify the council of the area in which the dog is ordinarily kept of the following matters within the time specified in relation to each of those matters—

(i) that the dog (with or without provocation) has attacked or injured a person or an animal (other than vermin)—notice to be given within 24 hours after the attack or injury,

(ii) that the dog cannot be found—notice to be given within 24 hours after the dog’s absence is first noticed,

(iii) that the dog has died—notice to be given as soon as practicable after the death,

(iv) (Repealed)

(v) that the dog is no longer being ordinarily kept in the area of the council—notice to be given as soon as practicable after the change of location,

(vi) that the dog is being ordinarily kept at a different location in the area of the council—notice to be given as soon as practicable after the change of location.

- (j) If the owner intends to keep the dog in the area of a council that is not the area in which the dog was ordinarily kept when the declaration was made, the owner must notify the council of the area in which the dog is intended to be ordinarily kept of his or her intention to do so.
- (k) The dog must, regardless of its age, be registered under this Act (if not already so registered) within 7 days after it is declared a dangerous dog.
- (l) The dog must be the subject of a permit issued under this Act, as required by section 11C.

Note. Section 11 also requires the owner of a dog to notify the Departmental Chief Executive within 7 days after a Court declares the dog a dangerous dog or revokes the declaration. If the order is made or revoked by a council, the council is required to notify the Departmental Chief Executive (see section 40).

(1A) The owner of a dog that is declared to be a menacing dog under this Act must ensure that each of the following requirements is complied with while the declaration is in force—

- (a) The dog must be desexed (if it is not already desexed) within 28 days after it is declared to be a menacing dog.

(b) Enclosure requirements

During any period that the menacing dog—

- (i) is on property on which the dog is ordinarily kept, and
- (ii) is not under the effective control of a person of or above the age of 18 years, the dog must be enclosed in a manner that is sufficient to restrain the dog and prevent a child from having access to the dog.

(c) Dog must be kept on lead and be muzzled

Whenever the menacing dog is outside property on which the dog is ordinarily kept, the dog—

- (i) must be under the effective control of some competent person by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash that is attached to the dog and that is being held by (or secured to) the person, and
- (ii) must be muzzled in a manner that is sufficient to prevent it from biting any person or animal.

For the purposes of this paragraph, a dog is not considered to be under the effective control of a person if the person has more than 2 dogs (one of which is the menacing dog) under his or her control at the one time.

- (d) The requirements set out in subsection (1) (b), (d), (d1), (i), (j) and (k). The reference in subsection (1) (k) to a dangerous dog is taken for the purposes of this paragraph to be a reference to a menacing dog.

Note. Section 11 also requires the owner of a dog to notify the Departmental Chief Executive within 7 days after a Court declares the dog a menacing dog or revokes the declaration. If the order is made or revoked by a council, the council is required to notify the Departmental Chief Executive (see section 40).

- (2) An owner of a dog who does not comply with any of the requirements of this section is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—150 penalty units.

- (3) Exemption from being on lead and muzzled while hunting In the case of a dog that has been declared dangerous on the ground that it is kept or used for the purposes of hunting, the requirements imposed under subsection (1) (e) do not apply while the dog is actually engaged in lawful hunting.

- (4) The requirements imposed under this section on the owner of a dangerous dog or menacing dog are additional to the other requirements of this Act imposed on the owner of a dog.

- (5) In subsection (1) (c)— existing dangerous dog means a dog that is the subject of a declaration by a council or court under this Part and in force immediately before the relevant date.

relevant date means the date on which this subsection (as inserted by the Companion Animals Amendment Act 2005) commences.

52 Dangerous or menacing dog may be seized if control requirements not complied with

- (1) An authorised officer may seize a dangerous or menacing dog if the officer is satisfied that any of the requirements of section 51 have not been complied with in relation to the dog.
- (2) If a dog is seized under subsection (1), Part 7 applies in relation to the dog.
- (3) However, a claim for the dog may be made under section 64 only if an authorised officer of the council of the area in which the dog is ordinarily kept is satisfied that each of the requirements of section 51 is capable of being complied with in relation to the dog.

52A Prohibition on selling dangerous or menacing dog or proposed dangerous or menacing dog

- (1) A person who sells, or advertises the sale of, a dangerous or menacing dog or proposed dangerous or menacing dog is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—150 penalty units.

Note. The term “sell” extends to the transfer of owner by any means, including by gift.

Abandoning an animal is also an offence—see section 11 of the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1979.

- (2) A person does not commit an offence under this section by reason only of surrendering a dangerous or menacing dog or proposed dangerous or menacing dog to a council pound or an approved animal welfare organisation.

Note. A dangerous or menacing dog that is surrendered to a council pound or an approved animal welfare organisation cannot be sold.

- (3) In this section and in section 52B, proposed dangerous or menacing dog means a dog that is the subject of a proposed declaration under Division 1.

52B Prohibition on accepting ownership of dangerous or menacing dog or proposed dangerous or menacing dog

- (1) A person who accepts ownership of a dangerous or menacing dog or proposed dangerous or menacing dog is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—150 penalty units.

- (2) A person does not commit an offence under this section—
- (a) by reason only of taking delivery of, or detaining, a dog under Part 7 or as the consequence of a dog being surrendered to a council pound or an approved animal welfare organisation, or
 - (b) if the person does not know, or could not reasonably be expected to know, that the dog was a dangerous or menacing dog or proposed dangerous or menacing dog.

53 Inconsistency with agreements

In the event of an inconsistency between this Division and the provisions of any agreement, covenant or instrument, this Division is to prevail, but to the extent only of the inconsistency.

Note. For example, the requirement under this Division that the owner of a dangerous or menacing dog display a warning sign on premises would override a provision in a lease prohibiting the fixing of any sign to a building.

54 Civil liability of owner of dangerous or menacing dog

The mere fact that a dog has at any time been declared to be a dangerous or menacing dog under this Act does not affect the civil liability of the owner of the dog in any proceedings (other than proceedings under this Act).

- (2) If a dog is seized under subsection (1), Part 7 applies in relation to the dog.
- (3) However, a claim for the dog may be made under section 64 only if an authorised officer of the council of the area in which the dog is ordinarily kept is satisfied that each of the requirements of section 56 is capable of being complied with in relation to the dog.

- (3) (Repealed)

58B Obligations of owner when notified of proposed restricted dog declaration

- (1) If a notice is given under section 58A to the owner of a dog of an authorised officer's intention to declare the dog to be a restricted dog, the owner must—
 - (a) ensure that at all times when the dog is away from the property where it is ordinarily kept—
 - (i) it is under the effective control of some competent person by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash that is attached to the dog and is held by (or secured to) the person, and
 - (ii) it has a muzzle securely fixed on its mouth in such a manner as will prevent it from biting any person or animal, and

 - (ii) the dog is not confined, tethered or restrained in such a way as to prevent the dog attacking or chasing a person lawfully at the property where the dog is ordinarily kept,

It does not matter if the dog is ordinarily kept in another council's area.

(2) Certification in relation to dog's breed or temperament may be provided An authorised officer of a council is not to declare the dog to be a restricted dog if, within the period of 28 days following the giving of the notice under section 58A, the owner of the dog—

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) An authorised officer of a council may issue a certificate of compliance in relation to the enclosure in which a dangerous or restricted dog is required to be kept if—

Part 6 Assistance animals

59 Person with a disability entitled to be accompanied by assistance animal

- (1) A person with a disability is entitled to be accompanied by an assistance animal being used bona fide by the person to assist the person, into or onto any building or place open to or used by the public or on any public transport.
- (2) The person is not guilty of an offence merely because the person takes the animal into or onto or

- (3) This section applies despite the provisions of any other Act or instrument made under an Act.

60 Assistance animal not to be denied entry

Maximum penalty—15 penalty units.

61 Unlawful to impose charge for entry of assistance animal

- (1) An occupier or person in charge or control of a building or place open to or used by the public or a person in charge or control of any public transport must not impose a charge on or in respect of a person with a disability who is accompanied by an assistance animal used bona fide by the person to assist him or her and who is taking the animal into or onto, or is entering or is in or on, that building or place or public transport, unless the charge would have been imposed on or in respect of that person if the person had not been accompanied by the animal.

Maximum penalty—15 penalty units.

- (2) A person (the defendant) does not contravene subsection (1) by imposing a charge in respect of an animal accompanying a person if the defendant proves that—
- (a) in the circumstances it was reasonably necessary for the defendant to supply accommodation for the animal additional to that supplied for the person, that the charge was imposed for that additional accommodation, and that the charge was a reasonable charge in the circumstances, or
 - (b) the defendant reasonably incurred additional expense because of the presence of the animal, that the charge imposed was to recompense the defendant for that additional expense, and that the charge was a reasonable charge in the circumstances.
- (3) When a person is convicted of an offence under this section in respect of a charge imposed on another person, the court may, upon application made by that other person, order the convicted person to refund the amount of that charge.
- (4) The court's order operates as an order for the payment of money under the Civil Procedure Act 2005 and is enforceable as such an order under that Act. Part 7 Procedures for dealing with seized or surrendered animals

Note. This Part generally applies in relation to companion animals that are seized under the authority of this Act or that otherwise end up at council pounds. The requirements and procedures of this Part are not intended to apply to lost or injured animals that are taken by members of the public to animal welfare organisations (such as the RSPCA) or to a vet merely so that they can be treated or reunited with their owners. The Part also does not apply to animals that are surrendered to animal welfare organisations (unless the organisation also operates as a council pound).

If companion animals (other than those seized under the authority of this Act) end up at a council pound (eg by being surrendered or abandoned), they may be dealt with by the pound operator under this Part.

62A Interpretation

(1) In this Part—

approved person means—

- (a) an approved animal welfare organisation, or
- (b) any person approved by the Departmental Chief Executive under section 83F(1) to have access to information contained in the Register for the purposes of identifying seized or lost animals.

approved premises means any premises (other than a council pound) operated by an approved person.

seized animal means an animal that is seized under the authority of this Act.

surrendered animal means a companion animal that—

- (a) is surrendered to a council pound, or
- (b) has come into the possession of a council pound otherwise than by being seized under the authority of this Act.

(2) A reference in this Part to a council is, in relation to a council pound referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition of that term in section 5, a reference to the pound operator.

62 Seized animals must be delivered to owner, council pound or approved premises

(1) A person who seizes an animal under the authority of this Act must cause the seized animal to be delivered as soon as possible—

- (a) to its owner, or
- (b) to a council pound, or
- (c) to any approved premises.

Maximum penalty—30 penalty units.

Note. Animals may be seized under the following provisions of this Act—

- (a) section 13,
- (b) section 14,
- (c) section 18,
- (d) section 22,
- (e) section 30,
- (f) section 32,
- (g) section 36,
- (h) section 52,
- (i) section 57,
- (j) section 58B.

Animals may also be seized under sections 57D and 58G, however this Part does not apply to animals seized under those sections.

- (2) In the case of an animal that has been seized by a person who is not an authorised officer, subsection (1) is complied with by the person if the person, as soon as possible after seizing the animal, makes an arrangement with an authorised officer for the animal to be delivered by the officer to its owner, a council pound or approved premises.

63 Owner of seized or surrendered animal to be notified

- (1) When a seized animal is delivered to a council pound or approved premises, the person in charge of the pound or premises is to give notice of the seizure of the animal to the person who appears (from the best endeavours of the person in charge to establish who the owner is) to be the owner of the animal. Notice of seizure need not be given if those best endeavours fail to establish the name and address of the owner of the animal.
- (1A) When a surrendered animal (other than an animal surrendered by its owner) comes into the possession of a council pound, the person in charge of the pound is to give notice of the possession of the animal to the person who appears (from the best endeavours of the person in charge to establish who the owner is) to be the owner of the animal. Notice of possession need not be given if those best endeavours fail to establish the name and address of the owner of the animal.
- (2) Without limiting the requirement that the person in charge of a pound or approved premises use his or her best endeavours to establish who the owner of an animal is, the person must make the following inquiries—
 - (a) inquiries to determine whether the animal is registered or identified as required by this Act and, if so, a search of the Register to find the name and address of the owner of the animal,
 - (b) inquiries based on any form of identification worn by the animal,
 - (c) such other inquiries as the regulations may require be made.
- (3) The notice required by this section is to be in writing and is to be given—

- (a) by being served personally on the person to whom it is required to be given, or
 - (b) by sending it by post to the person to whom it is required to be given at that person's address, being the address shown in the Register as the address of the owner or at such other address as appears to the person who gives the notice to be the owner's address, or
 - (c) by leaving it with some other person for the person to whom it is required to be given at that person's address.
- (4) The regulations may impose requirements on the form and contents of the notice required by this section and may provide for other ways in which the notice can be served.

63A Seized animals detained at approved premises

- (1) If a seized animal that is detained at approved premises is not claimed after the period of 72 hours following the delivery of the animal to the approved premises, the person in charge of the premises must cause the animal to be delivered to a council pound.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, an animal is claimed when a person who appears to the person in charge of the approved premises to be the owner of the animal or acting on the owner's behalf claims the animal.

64 Unclaimed seized or surrendered animal may be sold or destroyed

- (1) If a seized animal (including an animal delivered to a council pound under section 63A) or a surrendered animal (other than an animal surrendered by its owner) has not been claimed, the council may sell or destroy the animal—
 - (a) if notice under section 63 (1) or (1A) has been given—after the period of 14 days following the giving of the notice, or
 - (b) if such a notice is not required to be given—after the animal has been held at the council pound for a period of 7 days.
- (2) However, the council may, in accordance with any policy that has been adopted by the council in relation to the management of feral or infant companion animals, destroy the seized or surrendered animal concerned before the end of any such period referred to in subsection (1).
- (2A) Any policy adopted by the council for the purposes of subsection (2) must comply with such guidelines as may be issued by the Departmental Chief Executive.
- (3) An animal is claimed when—
 - (a) a person who appears to the person in charge of the pound to be the owner of the animal or acting on the owner's behalf claims the animal, and
 - (b) the fees for the release of the animal (being fees determined by the council under this Part) are paid to the council, and
 - (c) the charges for the animal's maintenance while it was detained by the council (being charges determined by the council under this Part) are paid to the council.
- (3A) Despite any other provision of this section, if an offence under this Act in relation to a seized animal is in the course of being investigated (or proceedings in relation to any such offence have commenced but have not been determined)—

- (a) the council may detain the animal at the council pound, and
- (b) the animal may not be claimed, until such time as those investigations are completed or those proceedings are finally determined.

- (4) An unregistered animal that is required to be registered cannot be claimed until an application for registration of the animal has been properly made (and any registration fee that is payable has been paid). The regulations may create exceptions to this subsection.
- (5) Before destroying a seized or surrendered animal as authorised by subsection (1), it is the duty of the council concerned to consider whether there is an alternative action to that of destroying the animal and (if practicable) to adopt any such alternative.
- (6) This section does not authorise a council to sell a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.

64A Animals surrendered by owners may be sold or destroyed

- (1) A council may at any time sell or destroy a surrendered animal if the animal was surrendered by its owner to the council pound.
- (2) Before destroying a surrendered animal as authorised by subsection (1), it is the duty of the council concerned to consider whether there is an alternative action to that of destroying the animal and (if practicable) to adopt any such alternative.
- (3) This section does not authorise a council to sell a dangerous, menacing or restricted dog.

65 Fees and charges payable when animal detained or held

- (1) A council can determine the following fees and charges for the purposes of this Part—
 - (a) release fees, being fees to be paid for the release of an animal detained or held under this Part, and
 - (b) maintenance charges, being charges to be paid for the maintenance of an animal while it is detained or held by the council under this Part.
- (2) Different fees and charges can be determined by a council in respect of different breeds, kinds or classes of animals.
- (3) The Minister can issue guidelines to councils from time to time with respect to the fixing of fees and charges under this section and councils are to comply with those guidelines.
- (4) The regulations may set maximum amounts for the fees and charges that can be determined by councils under this section.

66 Owner not entitled to compensation for sale of animal

- (1) A council that sells an animal under this Part may transfer the proceeds of sale to such of its funds as it considers appropriate. The money then becomes the property of the council.

- (2) A person who claims to be the owner of an animal sold by a council under this Part is not entitled to any compensation for the sale.
- (3) If the proceeds of sale of an animal are less than the release fees and maintenance charges determined by the council under this Part (together with any expenses reasonably incurred by the council in selling the animal), the council is entitled to recover from the person who was the owner of the animal at the time it was seized or surrendered the whole or part of the difference between the proceeds of the sale and the amount of those fees, charges and expenses.

67 Recovery of fees and charges when animal destroyed

If a seized or surrendered animal is destroyed by the council under this Part, the council is entitled to recover the following amounts from a person who was the owner of the animal at the time it was seized or surrendered—

- (a) the release fees and maintenance charges determined by the council under this Part,
- (b) if the council so resolves, the whole or part of any expenses reasonably incurred by the council in destroying the animal.

67A Reporting on pound activities

The Departmental Chief Executive may require a council to report to the Departmental Chief Executive on any matter relating to the activities of a council pound operated by the council or the council's agent.

68 Offence of rescuing seized animal

- (1) A person who rescues or attempts to rescue an animal seized under the authority of this Act or an animal lawfully detained after seizure under the authority of this Act is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

- (2) A person convicted of an offence under this section of rescuing an animal lawfully detained by a council is, in addition to any penalty imposed, liable to pay the charges for the maintenance of the animal while it was detained by the council (being charges determined by the council under this Part).
- (3) If 2 or more persons are convicted in respect of the one offence under this section, any charges payable under this section are, if the court so orders, payable in full by one of those persons or payable by any or all of those persons in such proportions as the court orders.

69 Protection of council and council officers

- (1) A person who destroys an animal under a power conferred by this Act is not liable in damages for any loss that the owner of the animal or any other person has sustained as a result of that action and nor is a council that authorised the person, unless it is established that the person or council did not act in good faith.
- (2) When an animal is sold under a power conferred by this Act—
 - (a) the buyer obtains the ownership of the animal freed and discharged from any right, interest, trust or obligation to which it was subject immediately before sale, and

- (b) the person who was the owner of the animal immediately before its sale ceases to have any claim in respect of the animal or any right of action in respect of the sale except as specifically provided by this Act.
- (3) A person is not prevented from recovering damages from a council in respect of the sale of an animal if the person establishes that the council, or the person who effected the sale, did not act in good faith or acted without reasonable care.

- (3) The powers of entry conferred by this section are not exercisable in relation to any part of premises used only for residential purposes except—

 - (a) to enter the property, and
 - (b) to exercise any of the functions of an authorised officer under section 69B.
- (3) Division 4 of Part 5 of the Law Enforcement (Powers and Responsibilities) Act 2002 applies to a search warrant issued under this section.

69F Identification of authorised officers of councils

- (1) Each authorised officer of a council is to be provided by the council with an identification card as an authorised officer.

Part 8 Identification and registration procedures

70 Identification

- (1) The regulations may make provision for the identification of companion animals—
 - (a) for the purposes of section 8, or
 - (b) otherwise than for the purposes of that section.
- (2) In particular the regulations may provide for the following—
 - (a) the manner in which companion animals are identified,
 - (b) the procedures to be followed in connection with the identification of companion animals,
 - (c) the accreditation of persons to carry out identification of companion animals and the duties of those persons in connection with identification.
- (3) The regulations are to specify the information that is to be the identification information for companion animals for the purposes of this Act. The identification information for a companion animal is to be entered on the Register but entry of that information does not of itself constitute registration of the animal.

Note. The purpose of entering identification information is to ensure that any available identification details for a companion animal are kept on the Register even before the animal has to be registered, so that the information can be used to trace the owner of the animal.

71 Registration

- (1) A companion animal is registered when the registration information for the animal is entered on the Register.

Note. Registration is for life and does not have to be renewed. There are exceptions to this in the case of dogs already registered under the Dog Act 1966 when the new registration scheme starts (see Schedule 3 Savings and transitional provisions).
- (2) The regulations may provide for the registration of companion animals, and in particular may provide for the following—
 - (a) the information concerning a companion animal that is to be the registration information for the animal,

- (e) restrictions on who can be the registered owner of a companion animal.
- (3) Two or more persons can be registered as joint registered owners of a companion animal.
- (4) A person who in or in connection with an application for registration makes a statement or gives information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular is guilty of an offence.

Maximum penalty—8 penalty units.

72 Certificate of registration

- (1) The Departmental Chief Executive is to provide the registered owner of a companion animal with a certificate of registration for the animal, showing the registration information for the animal.
- (2) The certificate of registration is to be provided at the time of registration and is to be provided free of charge.
- (3) The certificate of registration is evidence that the animal is registered and that the registration information shown on the certificate is that entered on the Register. Information entered on the Register is presumed (in the absence of evidence to the contrary) to be correct.

Note. In this way, the certificate of registration can be used as evidence of (for example) the name of the registered owner of an animal and the address at which it is ordinarily kept.

- (4) The Departmental Chief Executive can issue a replacement certificate of registration when a certificate of registration is lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, and can charge a fee for the issue of the replacement certificate.

73–75 (Repealed)

76 Interfering with identification of animal

- (1) A person must not remove, alter or otherwise interfere with any marking on or implant in a companion animal by means of which information about the identification of the animal is ascertained.

2 Definition

In this Schedule—

Dog Act means the Dog Act 1966 as in force immediately before the commencement of this clause.

Part 2 Phasing-in of registration

3 Special provision for dogs registered under the Dog Act

- (1) This clause applies to dogs registered under the Dog Act immediately before the commencement of this clause. This clause ceases to apply to a dog that becomes registered under this Act or that ceases to be registered under the Dog Act.
- (2) The provisions of the Dog Act and the regulations under the Dog Act continue in force (as if they had not been repealed) for the purposes of enabling a dog to which this clause applies to be registered under the Dog Act during the transition period.
- (3) The transition period is the period of 3 years that starts on the commencement of this clause. The regulations may change the transition period to any other period not shorter than 1 year and not longer than 5 years, either for all dogs to which this clause applies or for dogs of a particular class or description.
- (4) Section 8 (Identification required from 12 weeks of age and before sale) and section 9 (Registration required from age 6 months) of this Act do not apply during the transition period in respect of a dog while it is registered under the Dog Act as provided by this clause.

Note. This clause does not prevent a dog to which this clause applies being registered under this Act either immediately or at any time during the transition period. A dog to which this clause applies will have to be registered under this Act before it can be sold.

- (5) Dogs registered under the Dog Act immediately before the commencement of this clause continue to be registered under the Dog Act as applying under this clause.
 - (6) Section 12 (Dog to wear collar and tags) of this Act applies in respect of a dog registered under the Dog Act during the transition period as if the dog were registered under this Act and as if the registration tag most recently issued under the Dog Act to the owner of the dog were the current registration tag for the dog under this Act.
 - (6A) Sections 12 (1) (b) and 77 (and the definition of registration tag), as in force immediately before their repeal by the Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2001, continue to apply during the transition period in relation to a dog to which this clause applies as if those provisions had not been repealed. However (and despite subclause (6)), section 12 (1) (b) does not apply if the dog is identified in accordance with the regulations.
 - (6B) Without limiting subclause (6A), and for avoidance of doubt, it is declared that a person may be prosecuted (and a penalty notice may be served) for an offence committed during the transition period under section 12 or 77 in relation to a dog, or the registration tag of a dog, to which this clause applies.
- Note. The Statute Law (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act (No 2) 2001 repealed the provisions of this Act (including sections 12 (1) (b) and 77) that deal with registration tags for companion animals.
